Anno 2020

Un concentrato di passione e determinazione

Grazie a tutto il grande team COMERIO ERCOLE anche questo anno non certo facile ha visto una positiva conclusione dal punto di vista lavorativo. Passione e determinazione da parte di tutti hanno permesso di soddisfare tutti i clienti e mantenere gli impegni assunti re-ingegnerizzando i propri processi lavorativi con modelli del tutto innovativi. Ciò che non era mai stato considerato possibile è diventato possibile! In questa occasione ancora di più il capitale umano della COMERIO ERCOLE, le relazioni e l'unione tra il nostro personale aziendale è stata la forza motrice che ha permesso di mantenere in movimento in grande "ingranaggio"

year 2020: a concentrated of passion and determination from all the team

A positive prospective for the incoming new year 2021

Thanks to all the COMERIO ERCOLE team, this year, certainly not easy, has seen a positive conclusion from the working point of view. Passion and determination from all have made it possible to satisfy all customers and keep the commitments undertaken by re-engineering their work processes with completely innovative models. What was never considered possible has now become possible! On this occasion even more the human capital of COMERIO ERCOLE, the relationships and the union between our company staff was the driving force that allowed us to keep the great corporate "gear" in motion, giving a perspective for the future. . The production, commercial and technical activities were all maintained even during the lockdown period and there were never any interruptions. Our laboratories have made possible to meet the development needs of our customers and distinct innovative solutions of great interest in rubber, plastic and nonwovens field have been developed and finally performed from the industrial point of view. The greatest satisfaction for all of us was the recognition from many customers all over the world for the positive results achieved and for the guarantee offered to have always been at their side even in this COVID-19 period.
