PLAST & RUBBER 2023 – MILANO After four years, due to COVID-19-related challenges, the year's most significant plastic and rubber exhibition successfully concluded in Milan during the first days of September. COMERIO ERCOLE's team introduced new sustainable and innovative products for plastic processing, including calendaring, lamination, and embossing. Notably, a significant presentation has been filed regarding nonwovens processing for bio sector, along with the introduction of new mixing and calendaring products for rubber processing field.

What was never considered possible is now possible!

COMERIO ERCOLE AT RUBBERTECH – CHINA 2023

From September 4th to 6th, COMERIO ERCOLE's team, including members from both China and Italy, participated in a significant exhibition in Shanghai. This event, which witnessed more than 40,000 visitors and occupied over 50,000 square meters of exhibition space, marked the culmination of a three-year wait following the initial postponement due to COVID-19. The exhibition was a resounding success, with numerous customers visiting COMERIO ERCOLE's booth to learn about our latest innovations in the rubber manufacturing field, such as the new digital platform, HERCULES40®, the fully automatic steel cord threading system, FASTEEL®, and our innovative and automated AGV and RGV handling concept, REEL-HANDLING®. All of these advancements embody COMERIO ERCOLE's technological expertise and process knowledge, contributing to the production of high-quality rubber calendaring.
