IN BREVE:

Il 2026 si conferma per Comerio Ercole un anno ricco di importanti appuntamenti internazionali e nuove opportunità di incontro.

La partecipazione a fiere come CINTe Techtextil China, RubberTech China e Global Polymer Summit ha permesso all'azienda di incontrare clienti e partner, presentare le proprie tecnologie e raccogliere riscontri molto positivi dal mercato. Il percorso prosegue con la partecipazione a IRC 2026 AICHI in Giappone, un'ulteriore occasione per rafforzare la presenza internazionale e condividere soluzioni innovative per l'industria della gomma e dei materiali ad alte prestazioni.

Parallelamente, Comerio Ercole celebra la propria identità di azienda familiare, fondata nel 1885 e cresciuta attraverso generazioni di esperienza, innovazione e visione internazionale. Nel 2026 l'azienda è finalista al premio "Di padre in figlio" nella categoria Internazionalizzazione delle imprese, dopo averlo vinto nel 2022 per Storia e Tradizione. Un riconoscimento che valorizza un percorso fatto di continuità, innovazione e sguardo al futuro.

Innovation, engineered for what's next.

Being a family business means much more than passing a company from one generation to the next. It means preserving a heritage, sharing values and experience, while continuously looking towards the future.

For Comerio Ercole, this journey has been part of our identity for generations. Founded in 1885, the company has evolved alongside the industries we serve, combining a strong heritage with continuous innovation and an international vision. We are proud to have been selected as a finalist in the 2026 edition of the "Di padre in figlio" Award, in the Internationalization category. The award celebrates Italian family-owned companies that have successfully combined continuity, entrepreneurial vision and growth across generations. This recognition is particularly meaningful to us because it follows an important milestone in our history: in the 2022 edition, Comerio Ercole received the award in the "History and Tradition" category, recognizing our long-standing entrepreneurial heritage. From our roots to our global presence, our story is one of continuity and evolution. A family business with a clear ambition: to build on what generations before us have created, while engineering the technologies and opportunities of tomorrow. We are proud of this journey and grateful to everyone who continues to be part of it. Our history is our foundation. Our future is what we build together.
