Volume 2026 - Ed 10

IN BREVE:

Ottobre è stato un mese ricco di soddisfazioni e opportunità per Comerio Ercole, che ha ricevuto un importante riconoscimento entrando a far parte delle aziende Best Performer della provincia di Varese, nell'ambito della ricerca condotta da ItalyPost. Un risultato che premia il nostro impegno costante verso l'innovazione, la qualità e la crescita sostenibile.
Sul fronte internazionale, il nostro team ha effettuato diverse visite commerciali in India, rafforzando le relazioni con i clienti e approfondendo nuove opportunità di collaborazione e sviluppo tecnologico.
Nel frattempo, sono proseguiti i preparativi per le attività di novembre in Asia, con incontri programmati in Giappone, Cina e altri mercati strategici. Tra gli appuntamenti più importanti spicca la partecipazione a IRC 2026 Aichi, in Giappone, dove saremo presenti allo Stand 69 dal 3 al 6 novembre.
Continuiamo a guardare al futuro con entusiasmo, forti di oltre 140 anni di esperienza e di una presenza internazionale in continua evoluzione.

October has been an eventful month for Comerio Ercole, marked by an important recognition of the company's performance, international customer visits and preparations for upcoming activities in Asia.
From our headquarters in Italy to customers and partners worldwide, we continue to strengthen our relationships and pursue our commitment to engineering excellence, innovation and long-term industrial development.

Driving innovation, building the future.

We are proud to announce that Comerio Ercole has been recognised among the Best Performer companies in the province of Varese, as part of the research conducted by ItalyPost. The initiative, presented on October 21, highlights companies that stand out for their economic performance and ability to compete in an increasingly challenging business environment. Our Operations Manager, Andrea Comerio, also took part in the event, contributing to the discussion on the opportunities and challenges facing industrial companies today.

This recognition represents an important achievement for Comerio Ercole and reflects our continued commitment to responsible management, technological development and sustainable long-term growth.
Founded in 1885, our company proudly continues its industrial journey, combining more than 140 years of experience with an international outlook.

Driving innovation, building the future.

Our international activities will continue in November, with further customer visits planned in Japan, China and other Asian markets.
Maintaining close contact with our customers and understanding the evolving needs of different markets remain essential to our international growth strategy.
These business missions will offer additional opportunities to consolidate existing relationships, establish new contacts and explore future projects involving calendering lines.
We are also participating in IRC 2026 Aichi – International Rubber Conference, taking place from November 2 to 6, 2026, at the Aichi Sky Expo, Japan.
Under the theme "Future Rubber Technology toward Sustainability", the conference will bring together researchers, manufacturers, engineers and industry professionals to exchange knowledge and explore the latest developments in rubber and elastomer technologies.
The accompanying Rubber & Elastomer Technical Exhibition will take place from November 3 to 6.
At Booth 69, our team will be available to present Comerio Ercole's technologies and discuss solutions for calendering, mixing and complete rubber processing plants.
We look forward to meeting our customers, partners and industry professionals in Japan!
